Introducing an incredible 16.9-acre recreational property that is a nature lover's paradise. This breathtaking property is located just across from the stunning Alexander Reservoir and is bordered by the State of Idaho land. With a serene pond, a natural stream that runs through the property, and a diverse array of foliage and trees, this land is a true gem. Take advantage of the walking trails that wind through the acreage, or stroll along the canal bank and take in the serene surroundings. Bird enthusiasts will appreciate the large bird pens on the property that was home to wild pheasants and turkeys. The large 12X24 storage shed provides ample space for storing equipment and supplies for your outdoor adventures. Nestled amongst the trees, this is the perfect spot for hunters looking for an unforgettable experience. Whether you're looking for a weekend getaway or a place to build your dream home, this property is a must-see. Enjoy the beautiful views, fresh air, and tranquility of this...
